

Improved security

Securing your business information and protecting the data you store about your customers, suppliers and employees is vitally important. The new AccountRight includes a number of features that simplify how you manage access to company file data and make your information more secure. To find out more, click a topic below.

Also learn about two-factor authentication and other ways you can protect your AccountRight company file.

User roles to control company file access

Track user activity

Secure your backup files

BASlink setup information to be backed up separately \(Australia only\)

Related topics

New look and feel

More help

Company file changes

Better ways to manage your information

Easier ways to customise your information

Other changes

Two-factor authentication

Ways you can protect your AccountRight company file

From the community

More »